A life of poverty and hardship offers little hope for the children at Gasren's Home For Boys but that changes when one young boy discovers that he has a special gift. Using old pieces of wood and a few rubber bands he creates a one-of-a-kind instrument that helps his singing voice take flight. Just as opportunities begin to appear on the horizon for Birdie so do malevolent forces that he'll need to outsmart to survive.

"But you have the one thing the other boys don't -- a way out."
