1. Frosty the Snowman: This classic winter poem tells the story of a jolly snowman who magically comes to life. With its catchy rhymes and vivid imagery, children will be captivated by the adventures of Frosty and the fun he brings to the snow-covered landscape.

2. The Snow Queen: Inspired by the famous fairy tale, this poem takes readers on an icy adventure where a powerful Snow Queen reigns over a frosty kingdom. Children will feel the cold breeze brush against their cheeks as they join the main character on her journey through a winter wonderland.

3. The Little Polar Bear: Follow the tale of a curious little polar bear exploring the winter tundra. This heartwarming poem teaches children about the beauty of nature and the importance of compassion towards all creatures. With its charming illustrations and gentle storytelling, kids will discover the wonders hidden within the Arctic landscape.

Why Winter Poems are Perfect for Children

Winter poems not only entertain children but also nurture their imagination and encourage language development. As kids engage with the rhythms and sounds of these poems, they strengthen their vocabulary and grasp of language structure.

These poems also provide an excellent opportunity for parents and teachers to bond with children through reading and reciting together. The shared experience of exploring the magical winter world can be a cherished memory for both adults and kids alike.

Additionally, winter poems help children appreciate the beauty of the season and learn about nature. Through vivid descriptions, such as icy landscapes and frosted tree branches, kids develop a sense of wonder and curiosity about the world around them.

Poems for All Seasons

While winter poems are a delightful treat, children can benefit from exploring poems that encompass all four seasons. By exposing young readers to the full range of nature's wonders, they gain a deeper understanding of the cyclical rhythm of the year.

1. The Seasons: A poetic journey through spring, summer, autumn, and winter, this collection of poems takes children on an exciting adventure through the changing seasons. From blooming flowers to falling leaves, every season's unique characteristics are beautifully captured in these verses.

2. The Nature's Symphony: Embark on an enchanting journey where the sounds of nature come to life in poetic form. This collection celebrates the awakening of nature in spring, the warmth of summer, the colors of autumn, and the quiet beauty of winter. Each season is beautifully described, allowing children to connect with nature and its ever-changing song.

3. The Four Friends: Follow the adventures of four animal friends as they explore the magic of each season together. From making snow angels in the winter to playing in the autumn leaves, this collection highlights the joys and wonders associated with each season, reinforcing the importance of friendship and harmony.

Who doesn't love a snowy day? Well . . . lots of people.

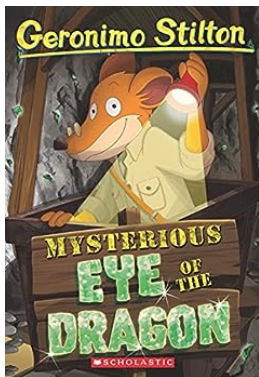

But not little ones!

Purple pie press is especially pleased to present its new literary romp through the chilliest of seasons by award-winning author, Julie Krantz. Chock-full of poems about everything from snow to cold, feathers, feet and fur, Ms. Krantz's latest offering is sure to warm the hearts of young and old alike.

Comprised of eighteen delightful poems and illustrations, SLEDDING DOWN THE HILL handily introduces even the youngest readers to the time-honored conventions of poetic form and function.

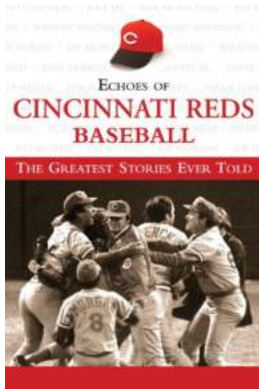

Teachers and librarians will be especially pleased with this winning collection's facile way of amusing and informing children even while it introduces them to the basics of meter, rhyme, image and metaphor. Recalling the work of revered children's poets--from the likes of Robert Louis Stevenson and A. A. Milne through to contemporary greats like Joyce Sidman, Shel Silverstein, and Jack Prelutsky, Ms. Krantz's poetry is sure to surprise and delight even the most reluctant of readers.

Sledding down the Hill is a lively complement to the many other children's books published by purple pie press, including several of Ms. Krantz's most recent works--Isabel Plum: Ichthyologist, Tip & Oliver: BFFs, Blueberry Moon, Yogabets: An Acrobatic Alphabet, One Charming Cat--Counting in French from One to Ten, and Sweet Feet: Love Poems for Little Peeps.
