Speak To My Heart. . . . Excerpt. . . . The Ecstatic Dance Of Soul

Speak to my heart, as I speak to you,
In the solitary times, in the lonesome nights,
Do I look up to you, as the rain falls,
From the silent sobbing of a soul so saddened,
Who comes to you with a silent plea;

I seek for the truth that goes beyond ages,
I search for the beauty that rests in eternity,
The beauty whose promise comes,
From the whispers of a love,
Falling from the lips of heaven.

There is a freedom that breaks all chains,
There is a beauty that breaks all sadness,
There is a light that breaks through the darkness,
There is a joy that overwhelms all pain.

I search for an ecstasy that breaks all bounds,
I search for a triumph that crosses all tragedies,
I search for a delight that cascades in drought,
I search for an elation to which every sorrow kneels.

Speak to me, speak to me now,
Whisper of love—lift my woes now.
Rain down the words to my thirsting soul,
The waters that fall from the heart of heaven,
To lift all agony and fill with joy,
So, I can rise from glory to glory.

One touch of your love,
And I rise from darkness to light,
To behold the gold in the richness of your face.
One touch of your mercy,
And the breath comes down to mingle with me,
The breath that turns every sorrow to joy,
Is this the needed—Breath of Life, to me?
The Breath that falls with hope, in a heart that has lost all.

Your love that streams with an unceasing flow,
So, the brook runs, in all the high and low,
The brook that gives waters to my soul,
As I yearn, from my thirst held inside.

I rise in faith, I rise in light,
As you carry me from despair to hope.

The flesh is the most erotic parchment in the world. Somewhere between erotica and romance, there is a hidden edge where want, need and desire come together; where expressions of a heart's immeasurable devotion can find a voice near yearning's searing fires. Here is where the odyssey of longing and love find footfall on passions path. This is the convergence of the sacred and the profane, of a man to a woman completely given. ...where touch has a sensuality that transcends the physical, and embraces the spiritual ... This is the soul's words finding flesh, then baring it in the softness of the female form and the iron willed bonds of love's making. Each kiss, each touch, each breath and heart beat, writing one more page, forging one more tender tether in Love's Velvet Reins.

This is the first in an autobiographical collection of poetry inspired by a woman in his journey's search for a muse and soulmate, a lover and best friend. This poetry journals all aspects of any journey's trials, travails, fantasies and realities wherein the heart is concerned; this poetry also reflects love's affect upon a onetime cynic, showing him how to love, but also that he could be loved in return, teaching him the heart can become the true poet.

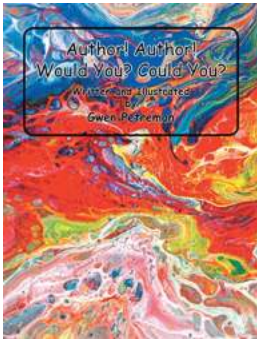

Love's Velvet Reins is also the culmination of a lifelong dream to become a published poet, a dream that began in 1982, but with deeper roots to elementary school years in his hometown of Minneapolis.

What was once velveteen to him became real through his own reflection in the mirror of her eyes. Her love made him real, waking his sleeping heart, waking the true poet in him.
