BLOOD ON THE BONES

'Clever plotting and polished prose make this a cracking good British police procedural.' BOOKLIST

Lapsed Catholic DI Joe Rafferty's latest case is in an enclosed Catholic convent. It is anybody's guess whether he catches the murderer before religion catches him.

A THRUST TO THE VITALS

'I immediately connected to the characters and wonderful plot.'

Can DI Joe Rafferty find the real murderer before he is forced to arrest his brother, Mickey, for the crime?

DEATH DUES

‘Geraldine Evans penned a wonderfully entertaining story.’

With his wife-to-be's wedding budget spiralling out of control, and a series of muggings now escalated to murder, DI Joe Rafferty's attempts to control the situations, land him in hot water on both counts.

ALL THE LONELY PEOPLE

‘I’m hooked! After reading the first two books in the series, I’m a definite fan of Geraldine Evans. Well written, nicely plotted, very entertaining.’

When Detective Inspector Joseph Rafferty visits his local pub for a quick drink, he’s looking to forget his troubles, not add to them.

His ex-fiancée Abra is still refusing to talk to him, and he’s fast losing hope of a reconciliation. But Rafferty is not destined to enjoy his drink in peace. Because a man is found dead – stabbed in the pub’s car park – and a preoccupied Rafferty is to lead the investigation.
