The Perfect Start to Reading

The Read With Biff Chip And Kipper First Stories series is specifically designed to introduce children to reading through phonics. Phonics is an effective method that teaches children to read by associating sounds with letters or groups of letters. It helps build their decoding skills, enabling them to read words fluently and independently.

The series consists of various stages, allowing children to progress at their own pace. The first stage, Stage 1, introduces children to the alphabet, while subsequent stages gradually introduce more complex phonics patterns and sight words. This systematic approach ensures a steady and structured learning experience.
