The writing had been on the wall for decades. Still humankind took advantage of all resources until the planet was on the brink of complete destruction. With no options the governments of the world turned their gaze to the skies. Many people were given the chance to invest in the projects and were asked to take the first steps. For years many were left behind in an attempt to repair the broken planet. When control was gone disorder rose in its place. Josh and Sami lived in the shattered world for several years. With the promise of a place to sleep and three meals a day, the pair decided to join the IMP. They left planet earth in an attempt at a new start. Joining the ranks of the IMP they became cadets. Washington, a space station built by America which housed the Imperial Military Personnel, was one of several space stations among the galaxy. Humans are one of many species that inhabited the skies. The pair, along with their squad learn quickly that nothing is free. Even in space there was trouble and the cadets find themselves thrust in the middle.
