

Sense Of An Ending Modern Plays: Unleashing the Power of Memory and Deception

Are you ready to embark on a journey that will challenge your perception of reality and leave you pondering the complexities of memory and deception? Look no further than "Sense Of An Ending Modern Plays," a groundbreaking theatrical production that takes the audience on a thrilling rollercoaster ride of emotions and introspection.

When it comes to modern plays that push boundaries and defy conventions, "Sense Of An Ending" undoubtedly stands out. Adapted from Julian Barnes' celebrated novel of the same name, this play explores the intricate nature of memory and its role in shaping our understanding of the world around us.

At its core, "Sense Of An Ending" delves into the themes of identity, truth, and the blurred lines between memory and fantasy. The protagonist, Tony Webster, finds himself grappling with the weight of his past as he attempts to navigate the labyrinthine layers of his memories. Deception lurks around every corner, leaving the audience questioning what is real and what is a construct of Tony's mind.

The weight of what is to come is unbearable. It is crushing me.

The sound of the crying, it never ceases. I carry this inside and now tell only you.

Charles, a disgraced New York Times journalist, arrives in Rwanda for an exclusive interview with two Hutu nuns. Charged with war crimes, the nuns must convince the world of their innocence during the 1994 genocide. When an unknown survivor contradicts the nuns' story, Charles must decide between saving his career or telling a murkier truth that might condemn the nuns to a life in prison.

Ken Urban's award-winning Sense Of An Ending shines a light on journalistic truth and morality amid the atrocity of the Rwandan genocide. The play was produced and published during the twenty-first century anniversary of the genocide, and is a striking and compelling political thriller asking if forgiveness is possible in a world where truth is never simple.

Sense Of An Ending was premiered at Theatre503, London, on 12 May 2015.
