In Israel one can learn Hebrew intensively in what is called an "Ulpan." Jeremiah and his family, almost typical Americans, decide to settle in Israel. Of course they want to learn Hebrew -- like so many other new immigrants from around the world. Shalom Jeremiah is their story. Israel and the Ulpan are a new world. For the most part the stories are based on events that my family experienced in our Ulpan.

The book cover for 'Shalom Jeremiah' by Abba Rubin features a solid light green background. The title 'SHALOM JEREMIAH' is written in a bold, green, hand-drawn font. Below it, 'by Abba Rubin' is written in a smaller, black, cursive font.
