The Long-awaited Return of Stephanie Plum

Stephanie Plum, the sassy and charismatic bounty hunter, has won the hearts of millions of readers worldwide. Her hilarious escapades, unconventional problem-solving skills, and romantic entanglements make her a beloved character in the mystery genre.

In "Sizzling Sixteen," Stephanie Plum is up against a whole new set of challenges. As she attempts to track down her estranged ex-boyfriend, who has mysteriously gone missing, she finds herself entangled in a web of dangerous mobsters, eccentric characters, and unexpected surprises.

Unraveling the Mystery

With the help of her eccentric and quirky sidekick, Lula, Stephanie navigates through the seedy underbelly of Trenton, New Jersey. Along the way, she encounters a cast of colorful characters who add depth and excitement to the story.

The long tail clickbait title draws readers in with the promise of a gripping and intense adventure. The intriguing plot twists, witty dialogues, and fast-paced action make "Sizzling Sixteen" a page-turner from start to finish.

Romance and Humor

No Stephanie Plum novel is complete without a touch of romance and humor. Evanovich masterfully weaves in romantic subplots that add depth to Stephanie's character and keep readers invested in her personal life.

As always, Stephanie finds herself torn between two love interests – the mysterious and dangerous Ranger and the charming and dependable Joe Morelli. The ongoing love triangle adds a layer of tension and excitement to the story, leaving readers eagerly turning the pages to uncover who Stephanie will end up with.

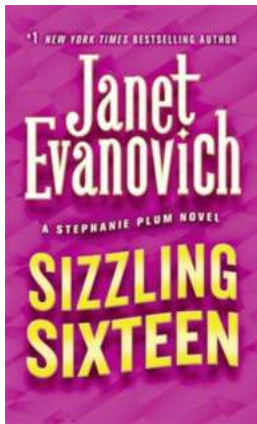

Evanovich's signature humor shines through in "Sizzling Sixteen" as Stephanie navigates her way through ludicrous situations with her trademark wit and sarcasm. The witty banter between characters will have readers laughing out loud and falling in love with Stephanie Plum all over again.

A Must-Read for Stephanie Plum Fans

Whether you're a longtime fan of the Stephanie Plum series or new to the adventures of this unforgettable character, "Sizzling Sixteen" is a must-read.

Trenton, New Jersey, bounty hunter Stephanie Plum has inherited a "lucky" bottle from her Uncle Pip. Problem is, Uncle Pip didn't specify if the bottle brought good luck or bad luck. . . .

BAD LUCK:

Vinnie, of Vincent Plum Bail Bonds, has run up a gambling debt of $786,000 with mobster Bobby Sunflower and is being held until the cash can be produced.

Nobody else will pay to get Vinnie back, leaving it up to Stephanie, office manager Connie, and file clerk Lula to raise the money if they want to save their jobs.

GOOD LUCK:

Being in the business of tracking down people, Stephanie, Lula, and Connie have an advantage in finding Vinnie. If they can rescue him, it will buy them some time to raise the cash.

BAD LUCK:

Finding a safe place to hide Vinnie turns out to be harder than raising $786,000. Vinnie's messing up Mooner's vibe, running up pay-per-view porn charges in Ranger's apartment, and making Stephanie question genetics.

GOOD LUCK:

Between a bonds office yard sale that has the entire Burg turning out, Mooner's Hobbit-Con charity event, and Uncle Pip's lucky bottle, they just might raise enough money to save the business, and Vinnie, from ruin.

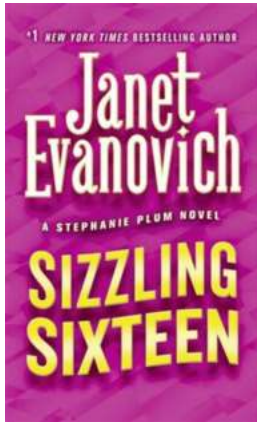

BAD LUCK:

Saving Vincent Plum Bail Bonds means Stephanie can keep being a bounty hunter. In Trenton, this involves hunting down a man wanted for polygamy, a turnpike toilet paper bandit, and a drug dealer with a pet alligator named Mr. Jingles.

GOOD LUCK:

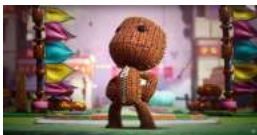

The job of bounty hunter comes with perks in the guise of Trenton's hottest cop, Joe Morelli, and the dark and dangerous security expert, Ranger. With any luck at all, Uncle Pip's lucky bottle will have Stephanie getting lucky---the only question is . . . with whom?

Janet Evanovich's Sizzling Sixteen . . . so hot, the pages might spontaneously combust!
