Don't be fooled by her adorable appearance – Miss Rabbit is a mathematics prodigy. She uses her nimble paws and sharp mind to solve equations and puzzles faster than you can blink. Her playful teaching style makes arithmetic a delight, and calculus a piece of carrot cake!

Then there's Freddie the Fox, the charismatic wordsmith who knows the ins and outs of literature. With his eloquent speeches and knack for storytelling, he'll make you fall in love with Shakespeare and decipher the hidden meanings behind classic novels. Get ready to feel like you're attending a private literature club, with Freddie as your charming host.

But what about those difficult science experiments that make your head spin? That's where Dr. Pig steps in. With her innovative approach to scientific explanations and hands-on experiments, she'll turn your kitchen into a fully equipped laboratory. From understanding the laws of physics to conducting simple chemistry experiments, Dr. Pig has got you covered.

"Catch the excitement of a hailstorm roaring through the countryside. Imagine the smell of fresh oats on threshing day. Watch the threshermen enjoying piles of lip-smacking food and homemade lemonade prepared for their noon meal. Take a trip to the county fair with the farmer, his wife, and a sneaky cat, where judges award blue ribbons and Cat finds a friend. Peer through the darkness to the old haunted store on the hill and see a mysterious light. Join Nightshade, a black lab, as he guides his people and animals through a year of changes on the farm. You will read these charming stories again and again to the children in your life."
