Research has consistently shown that children who are taught to read early tend to perform better academically. They have improved comprehension skills, stronger vocabulary, and enhanced cognitive abilities. Reading also promotes critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving skills – all essential traits of a successful leader.

As parents, we play a crucial role in shaping our children's future. By instilling a love for reading, we set them on a path towards success and empower them to become leaders in their own right.

The Am Leader Reader Approach

At Am Leader Reader, we believe that every child has the potential to become an exceptional leader. Our approach combines the fundamentals of reading with the invaluable lessons of leadership, inspiring children to unlock their full potential and become strong, confident, and compassionate individuals.

The Am Leader Reader program focuses on teaching children not only how to read but also how to lead. Through engaging stories, interactive exercises, and thought-provoking discussions, we foster a love for reading while imparting valuable leadership skills. We believe that by nurturing this unique combination, children can develop the qualities necessary to make a positive impact in their communities and beyond.

Benefits of the Am Leader Reader Program

1. Improved literacy skills: Through our program, children develop strong reading and comprehension skills, enabling them to grasp complex concepts and information easily.
2. Enhanced critical thinking: Reading exposes children to different perspectives and ideas, fostering critical thinking and problem-solving abilities essential for effective leadership.
3. Empowerment and self-confidence: As children develop their reading and leadership skills, they gain a sense of empowerment and confidence in their abilities.
4. Character development: The stories and discussions in our program teach important values such as empathy, resilience, and responsibility, shaping children into well-rounded individuals.

How to Teach Your Child to Read and Lead?

Teaching your child to read and lead can be an incredibly rewarding experience for both of you. Here are some steps to get started:

1. Start Early:

The earlier you start, the better. Introduce reading to your child from a young age, even before they can understand the words. Create a reading routine and make it a fun and enjoyable experience.

2. Read Together:

Set aside dedicated time to read with your child. Choose age-appropriate books that capture their interest and engage their imagination. Read aloud, ask questions, and encourage discussions to enhance their understanding and critical thinking.

3. Lead by Example:

Children often imitate what they see, so make sure they see you reading. Let them witness your love for books and show them that reading is an enjoyable and valuable activity.

4. Make it Fun:

Incorporate games, puzzles, and interactive activities to make the learning process enjoyable. Turn reading into a bonding experience by using funny voices, acting out characters, or even creating your own stories together.

5. Join the Am Leader Reader Program:

Consider enrolling your child in the Am Leader Reader program to take their reading and leadership skills to the next level. Our expert instructors will guide them through a comprehensive curriculum tailored to their age and abilities.

Reading is more than just a hobby; it is a gateway to a brighter future. By teaching your child to read and lead, you are providing them with the essential skills and values they need to succeed in life. The Am Leader Reader program offers a comprehensive approach that combines reading and leadership, empowering children to reach their full potential and make a positive impact. Start your child's journey today and unlock a world of possibilities!

So, are you ready to teach your child to read and lead? Remember, the time to start is now!

How To Teach Your Child To Read and Lead at the Same Time

Set the foundation for preschoolers and toddlers to love Early Reading, Phonics, Science, Math, Art, and Geography.

Welcome to the I-Leader-Reader Series. We have designed these books for early readers to have the opportunity to learn to read about leaders. These leaders are identifiable people, thereby allowing your child to see the leader in them.

Your Child Will Learn to Read Visually

Do you have a child that is a visual learner? Do you find your child trying to guess or memorize the words instead of truly learning to read? Our early reader method uses a Visual Word Builder Map to help your child identify words. This method forces your child to take the time to put the words together. It is great for visual learners, antsy toddlers, and active preschoolers.

Improve Your Child's Social Skills

Are you concerned about your child's social skills and interaction with other children? Do you always find your child being the rowdy one in the bunch. This book uses historical leaders to highlight the importance of what it means to be a leader. Each activity ends with what we call a "Shining Leader Moment". These Shining Leader Moments highlight the leadership qualities your child can take away while learning about fun and interesting topics in math, science, or geography.

We have designed a special method for you to learn your child's leadership skills called, "Loves to Lead". We discuss five ways your child may express how they Love to Lead. These Love to Lead expressions will allow you to understand how your child prefers to lead themselves and others. It is your job to mirror their expression to provide them with a positive affirmation. This affirmation says, "It's great to be me!" There are 5 major expressions people Love to Lead by: Patience, Serving, Impact, Great Words, and Giving.

We have designed specific activities to help develop your Love to Lead skills. The purpose of these activities is to get your child in the habit of using their strengths and gifts in any situation. Furthermore, allowing them to appreciate the gifts and strengths in others. Thereby, improving their social skills
