The Enigmatic "Green Ones"

At the heart of "Schism: The Green Ones" lies the mysterious group known as the "Green Ones." These individuals possess a unique genetic mutation that grants them unparalleled telekinetic powers. As their numbers grow, the world begins to fear their potential.

The "Green Ones" are portrayed as both heroes and villains, depending on one's perspective. Some view them as benevolent beings, using their abilities for the betterment of humanity, while others see them as dangerous threats that need to be controlled.

Through vivid descriptions and compelling character development, Smith explores the complex motivations of the "Green Ones." Readers are left questioning their own morality and pondering the fine line between good and evil.

A World in Chaos

In "Schism: The Green Ones," the world is plunged into chaos as governments and corporations scramble to assert control over these telekinetic beings. The once-stable foundations of society crumble under the weight of fear and uncertainty.

Smith's descriptive prose paints a vivid picture of this dystopian world, where buildings lie in ruins and desperation fuels the actions of both ordinary citizens and those with telekinetic abilities. The author skillfully captures the sheer terror and awe-inspiring power of these individuals, leaving readers breathless.

The Struggle for Survival

Amidst the chaos and destruction, our unlikely protagonist, Emily Johnson, emerges. Born with telekinetic abilities, Emily must navigate a treacherous landscape filled with uncertainty, danger, and betrayal.

As the story unfolds, readers are taken on a rollercoaster ride of emotions. From heart-stopping action sequences to tender moments of connection and hope,

"Schism: The Green Ones" explores the resilience of the human spirit and the power of love in the face of adversity.

A Captivating Reading Experience

With its intricate world-building, compelling characters, and gripping plot, "Schism: The Green Ones" is a must-read for fans of dystopian fiction. Smith's ability to seamlessly blend thought-provoking social commentary with thrilling action makes this novel a standout.

Prepare to be captivated by "Schism: The Green Ones" as it takes you on a mesmerizing journey through a telekinetic dystopia. Will the world find a way to coexist with the "Green Ones," or will fear and mistrust prevail?

In

"Schism: The Green Ones" offers an intriguing exploration of telekinetic abilities in a dystopian setting. John Smith's masterful storytelling and vivid descriptions create a thrilling reading experience that will leave readers wanting more.

For the telekinetic youth of New Teotihuacan's Worker City there are two choices: an enslaved life or a free death. By sixteen, everyone must choose.

Calli Bluehair's only hope of escaping a violent death in the self-indulgent underground of Worker City is the government-run Masa Academy. Choosing to ignore the rumors that the Academy is an option worse than death, Calli determines to claw her way onto the registry and take her brother, Olin, with her.

When, only days before registration, Olin is thrown into a state of telekinetic shock capable of detonating half of Worker City, Calli is forced to seek help from an infamous crime lord or risk losing her future and her only remaining family. It turns out that many have intentions for the uniquely gifted siblings and survival may no longer be enough.

Brown's page-turning, dystopian adventure revolves around a heroine who must maintain her humanity in the midst of monstrous decisions. His vivid rendering of telekinesis births a complex, mysterious, and provocative world that reveals itself to the reader in a kaleidoscope of detail the longer one chooses to stare through his fractured lens. The Green Ones series is a mix of The Hunger Games, Ready Player One, and Ender's Game.

MORE ABOUT THE SCHISM 8 UNIVERSE:

Reality is broken.

In a world where senses perceive a fraction of reality, every conspiracy should be taken seriously and the impossible considered probable. From secret histories to alternate futures, to paranoid thriller, pulp western, and dystopian fantasy, Schism 8 pieces together a vast reality that eventually pits its central characters against each other as they attempt to assert their personal views of reality as correct. In the end, whose image will the universe reflect? Only those who envision the Schism will survive.

OTHER SCHISM 8 SERIES and SUGGESTED READING ORDER

- Start with either Lost DMB Files or The Green Ones.
- Do not attempt reading Relic Hunters Before reading De Novo and The Green Ones.
- You should probably read Lost DMB Files before reading De Novo.
- Feel free to read Rx Empire at any point...once it is published.
