The 2021 Hyundai Elantra sedan might be living in 2050 with its wild, triangular styling, but the Elantra GT hatchback remains clothed in yesteryear's design for the foreseeable future. Despite the older countenance, the GT is still receiving big updates, including last year's new N-Line trim that replaces the outgoing Sport model. It's no full-fat Veloster N, but there's a whole lot to like about this under-the-radar five-door, and it'll appeal to a pretty wide swath of sport-adjacent buyers.
