The American Terrorist by Jeffrey Sabins takes us deep inside the Iraq conflict with Marine Gunnery Sergeant Jared Tremble during his trek of Military Revenge.

Jared joined the Marines straight out of high school and is now a veteran of numerous campaigns in Iraq, Afghanistan and even the Horn of Africa. This taught him the art as an American tracking down terrorists in this military fiction novel.

Although he is well respected and an extremely good Marine, Jared has had enough. He feels the government and military leadership have been lying consistently to the troops and that they should not even be there, fighting in some foreign land against an enemy that is simply trying to live its purpose and faith. The crunch time has come for Jared and he has decided on an audacious plan to try to gain some meaning in his life as a Marine Corps Killer. Jared will walk out of camp one night and join the Army of Islam to fight against his former brothers-in-arms – Jared will become a traitor.

Don't miss out with book one of this series as Jared becomes what others are afraid to act on, a much needed rogue hero and military assassin.

Bereft and lost, he sees this as the only way to put some meaning back into his existence. He is tired of fighting for cowards and liars who use the troops on the ground as their proxies to gain power and influence over the region. Gunnery Sergeant Jared Tremble is about to go rogue!
