Based on meditation the artist and designer, Ingrid Sagøy, has created a poetic guide. This is a book for people seeking inner landscapes. An inspiration for those opening doors to unfamiliar spaces in our spiritual quest to become better acquainted with ourselves. Meeting the subtle voice inside can be the most surprising meeting ever. When you are in the silence, you meet another part of yourself. More evolved, loving and intelligent. To experience that a Source exists within you, that have always been there, waiting for the moment for you to rediscover yourself and your true and genuine essence. Ingrid Sagøy has painted all the metaphorical experiences during the past 20 years. Some paintings and titles coincide with the theme of the meditation. This gives room for wonder and more openness to what happens in the unconscious space, where we sense and have an awareness of our inner state of being. Based on these terms, the future is concurrent with the past, and time does not exist.
