Buongiorno!

Italy is a beautiful country with a rich history that quite literally has something for everyone. Whether you like skiing in the Alps, sipping wine in Tuscany, high fashion in Milan or the hustle and bustle of Rome, there is no shortage of amazing experiences in Italy.

Architecture, art, food and music are as much a part of Italian culture as baseball and apple pie are to the U.S., or maple syrup and hockey are to Canada. Honoring and embracing the culture in Italy is a way of life for Italians and expats alike.

As one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world, it's no wonder that Italy is also a popular relocation destination for expats. Many people dream of moving to Italy to start a new life, or as a reward to themselves for their retirement.

This guide is packed with all the essential information need to navigate a move to Italy. International relocations of any kind can be complicated and Italy is no exception. Find out everything you need to know before you go, along with tips and insights from people who have been there and done that.

Buon viaggio!
