The Dressmaker's Cottage is a 50,000 word romance set in Scotland. It's the sixth book in the Cottages, Cakes & Crafts series. It can be read as a standalone, but as some of the storylines and characters intertwine, you may enjoy reading the whole series.

1. The Flower Hunter's Cottage
2. The Sewing Bee by the Sea
3. The Beemaster's Cottage
4. The Chocolatier's Cottage
5. The Bookshop by the Seaside
6. The Dressmaker's Cottage

Story:

Emmie lives in Edinburgh. She designs embroidery patterns and loves to sew and upscale vintage dresses.

By chance, she acquires beautiful vintage dresses, original designs made by the dressmaker many years ago. The dressmaker invites Emmie to bring them to her cottage in the lovely little village on the Scottish coast. And to enjoy a short break in a pretty cottage by the sea.

Emmie arrives on a hot summer's day, and soon becomes involved in the dressmaker's world of creating dresses for a television series. She extends her stay to work with the dressmaker, and joins the local sewing bee. She becomes involved in the local community, sewing dresses, knitting and quilting. She meets two handsome men — Hunter and Calum. But will she find romance with either of them?

As secrets from the dressmaker's past come to light, and the local community's lives intertwine, will Emmie find the romance and happiness she's always longed for?

Note:

The book includes an embroidery pattern, designed by the author, De-ann Black, to download. The Dressmaker's Cottage embroidery is based on the book cover.
