I played the flute in The Elizabethan Trust Melbourne Orchestra from May 1971 to December 1974. During those years, I collected the orchestra's schedules and programs. In 1972, I participated in the recording of Minkus's Don Quixote under the baton of John Lanchbery, from which an LP, a film and a DVD were made. I am publishing this collected material for those who might be interested in the history of this orchestra and opera and ballet companies in the years 1971 - 1974
