Joanna Wright spent a year as a student in the New England Center for Circus Arts Intensive Track program in 2015/2016, and while there she wrote about her experiences in haiku form. This particular book has been described as "the best book of haiku about circus school that [the reviewer has] ever read." About Joanna's poetry in general, multiple people have said, "I don't usually like poetry, but your poetry is really good." So if you don't like poetry and have any interest at all in learning what it's like to attend circus school, this is the book for you.
