Exploring the Rosetown Universe - A Book-by-Book Journey

Now, let us take a closer look at some of the beloved Rosetown books that have captured the hearts of both young readers and adults:

1. "Missing May"

In this poignant tale, Rylant introduces us to Summer, a young girl who finds solace in her aunt May after the death of her parents. When May herself passes away, Summer and her friend Cletus embark on a quest to find her spirit. This touching story explores themes of grief, healing, and the power of love.

2. "Flora & Ulysses: The Illuminated Adventures"

Enter the extraordinary world of Flora Belle Buckman, a self-proclaimed cynic, and lover of comic books. When she rescues a squirrel named Ulysses, she discovers that he possesses unique and unexpected powers. Together, they embark on a series of hilarious and heartwarming adventures, reminding readers of the joys of friendship and the magic that exists within us all.

3. "Mr. Putter & Tabby Pour the Tea"

This charming early reader book introduces readers to the delightful duo, Mr. Putter and Tabby. Join this endearing elderly man and his faithful cat as they navigate the ups and downs of everyday life and learn the value of companionship and kindness.

“Eloquent and resonant...poignantly underscores the significance of family, friendship, and home.” —Publishers Weekly (starred review)“Gentle and old-fashioned in the best sense...a little gem about small-town life.” —Booklist (starred review)“A sweet story for children dealing with change.” —Kirkus Reviews

From Newbery Medalist Cynthia Rylant comes the charming story of nine-year-old Flora Smallwood and the eventful year she spends in the quiet community of Rosetown, Indiana.

For nine-year-old Flora Smallwood, Rosetown, Indiana, is full of surprises, many of the best of which happen at the Wing and a Chair Used Book Shop, where she loves to read vintage children’s books after school in the faded purple chair by the window.

But lately, those surprises haven’t been so good. Her dear old dog, Laurence, recently passed away. Not long after, her parents decided to take a breather from their marriage, and now Flora has to move back and forth between their two houses. Plus, she’s just begun fourth grade, and it is so much different than third.

Luckily Flora has two wonderful friends—one old and one new. And with them around to share thoughts and laughs and adventures big and small, life in Rosetown still has many sweet moments—and even some very happy surprises!
