A Brief to the Dala Horse

The Dala Horse, also known as "Dalahäst" in Swedish, is a traditional carved and painted wooden horse from the Dalarna region of Sweden. It has become an iconic symbol of Swedish culture and heritage. The origin of the Dala Horse dates back to the 17th century when the craftsmen of Dalarna began making these horses during long winters. The Dala Horse was initially crafted as a children's toy, but over time, it evolved into a beloved artistic masterpiece.
