The Little Blue Door is more than just a bar; it's a creative hub where artists, creators, and dreamers come together to share ideas and inspiration. Whether you're an aspiring writer, a budding musician, or simply someone who appreciates art in all its forms, this is the place to be. From poetry nights and live music performances to storytelling sessions and art exhibitions, the events hosted here never fail to ignite the spark of creativity and leave you feeling inspired.

A Cocktail Wonderland for the Adventurous Palate

Step up to the bar and prepare to embark on a tantalizing journey of flavors. The Little Blue Door's mixologists are true alchemists, concocting exquisite cocktails that are as visually stunning as they are delicious. With an impressive selection of spirits, herbs, and homemade syrups, every drink is a masterpiece that tells a story of its own.

The drink menu at The Little Blue Door is an ever-changing work of art that adapts to the seasons and the latest mixology trends. From classic cocktails with a twist to innovative creations that push the boundaries of taste, there is something for every adventurous palate. Be prepared to have your preconceptions of cocktails shattered as you sample drinks that feature unexpected ingredients like seaweed-infused vodka, rosemary-infused gin, or lavender bitters.

For those seeking a truly unique experience, booking a cocktail masterclass at The Little Blue Door is a must. Learn the art of mixology from the masters themselves as you experiment with flavors, create your own signature cocktails, and unlock the secrets behind their most extraordinary creations.

An Invitation to Forge Friendships

The Little Blue Door is more than just a place to indulge in extraordinary cocktails and immerse yourself in art; it's also a space for forging meaningful connections and making lifelong friends. The bar's communal dining concept encourages patrons to sit together and share food, stories, and laughter, fostering a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere.

The menu at The Little Blue Door is a delightful fusion of international cuisines, featuring small plates that are perfect for sharing. From mouthwatering tapas and aromatic curries to succulent sliders and delectable desserts, the food here is a feast for the senses that complements the sensational cocktails.

But it's not just the food and drink that bring people together at The Little Blue Door; it's the warm and friendly staff who go above and beyond to make you feel at home. Their infectious enthusiasm, genuine passion for their craft, and knack for making everyone feel welcome are what sets this place apart from any other bar you've stepped into.

Unlock the Little Blue Door and Discover Your Own Wonderland

The Little Blue Door is a testament to the magical and unexpected treasures that can hide behind unassuming facades. It's a place where imagination knows no bounds, where art comes to life, and where friendships are forged over cocktails and shared stories. Whether you're a curious traveler, a creative soul, or simply in search of a unique experience in the heart of London, swing open the little blue door and unlock your own whimsical wonderland.

Can a lost past lead to a beautiful future?

Melodie feels lost and alone, desperate to find something to remind her of her life before the pandemic. She sets out on a trip to Corfu to reconnect with happier times, only to be haunted by memories and events from the past.

While travelling, Melodie meets a handsome man with an intriguing young daughter. But Melodie doesn't want a holiday fling. It's not in her nature. After deciding to avoid the intriguing pair, their paths collide once more. But who holds the key to Melodie's past, and who will open the door to her future?

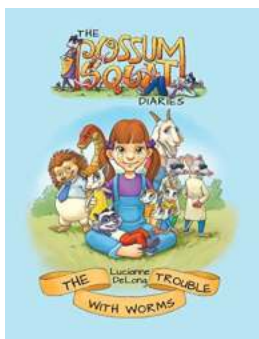

The Little Blue Door is the first in a trilogy of contemporary women's fiction and family saga. If you like raw emotions and a sexy slow burn romance set to the beautiful backdrop of Greece, then it's time to fly off to Corfu with Francesca Catlow's Little Blue Door series.

Read The Little Blue Door now to discover the secrets of Melodie's past and if she'll ever find the future she deserves.
