the little RED marker

This is a LARGE font, rhyming book that teaches children that they can draw anything, especially when they put their mind to it. "the little marker series" is a collection of books built on the premise of different color markers that all have the same task and that is to figure out what to draw on a blank canvas. Each marker discovers their 'inspiration,' 'creativity,' and 'imagination!' Each book features a little color marker, i.e., RED, GREEN, and BLUE.

"The little RED marker" struggles as it tries to come up with something to draw. Through a series of both accidents and realizations, each marker comes up with some rather funny combinations that make their colors so unique! This adorable, illustrated book follows the same "rhyming and color" theme as the other books in the series.

This series will eventually include other colors (to be released in 2022) but for now, three books have been introduced by author, Nick Nebelsky.

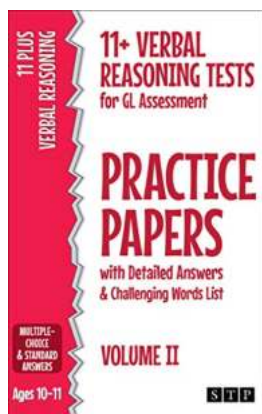

This is a great book for children who don't know what to do when facing that elusive blank page. It's fun, creative, and great for children ages 6-8.

This book is a rhyming book with lots of emotion displayed on the facial expressions of the markers. This is a great book to discuss emotions with children, about some consequences of their actions, and overall enjoyable rhyming.
