A remembering who you were before the world got its hands on you.

The ooooooonly reason I'm uploading this book is because I'm in love with this story. Other people don't care for it - only a few select do. But for the 1% of the population that will feel what I feel for this story - in all its trite, perhaps melodramatic energy - will enjoy this also.

Basically, Cynthia and Alex have a connection, a connection she feels destined to pursue. Unfortunately, Alex gave her the cold shoulder, so it was tough and she was in her feelings, but she eventually moves on. Or tries to.

But like the good old eff-boy he is, Alex re-appears and tries to push himself back in the mix. And you and I BOTH know she has nooooooo business giving him another opportunity to feel her love... but she gives in... and I'm sorry.. you have to read the rest for yourself.

Don't worry. It's Kindle Unlimited and I'm charging what I want because you have to be crazy to read this. LOL.

Oh yeah - there's another woman in this story, but she doesn't last. If you're looking for ROMANCE, please check out Honey Love's books. Lauren Lashley is... well, herself.;)
