Unbeknownst to them, the dust bunnies start rhyming every word they say, which leads to hilarious misunderstandings. For example, when Bob says "car," Ed replies with "far," Ned substitutes with "bar," and Ted concludes with "jar." This comical pattern continues throughout the book, sparking laughter and keeping readers engaged until the very end.

As the story progresses, a surprise visitor arrives – a dust bunny named Sue. Unlike Ed, Ned, Ted, and Bob, Sue cannot rhyme. This causes much confusion and distress among the rhyming dust bunnies, leading to a series of comical attempts to teach Sue the art of rhyming. Will Sue succeed in rhyming or forever remain a non-rhyming dust bunny? You'll have to read the book to find out!
