Understanding the Astounding Mechanism

What causes The Rising of the Fifth Sun? How do the celestial bodies converge to create such a mystical event? Let us delve into the mechanics behind this astonishing phenomenon and explore the cosmic choreography that takes place.

At its core, The Rising of the Fifth Sun occurs due to a planetary alignment. Every 5,125 years, the five visible planets - Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn - align in a specific geometric pattern with the Earth and the Sun. This cosmic alignment creates a portal of cosmic energy, allowing the Fifth Sun to emerge from its slumber and herald a new era.

Furthermore, this alignment coincides with the precession of the equinoxes, a gradual shift in the Earth's axial rotation. The combination of these two cosmic events amplifies the transformative power of The Rising of the Fifth Sun, accentuating its impact on both the physical and spiritual realms.

The Mythological Significance

Throughout history, The Rising of the Fifth Sun has been intertwined with captivating mythological tales that shed light on the deeper meaning behind this astronomical spectacle. In the ancient Aztec mythology, the Fifth Sun represents the deity called Tonatiuh, symbolizing the rebirth and regeneration of the entire universe.

According to Aztec belief, Tonatiuh consumes the existence of preceding eras, allowing a fresh and vibrant cosmic age to emerge. The Aztecs regarded this celestial phenomenon as a divine affirmation of life's cyclical nature and saw it as an opportunity for spiritual growth and renewal.

Similarly, the Maya civilization associated The Rising of the Fifth Sun with the deity Itzamna, the creator of all life. The Mayans believed that during this extraordinary cosmic event, Itzamna would descend from the heavens and grant divine wisdom and guidance to those attuned to the energies of the Fifth Sun.

Peter Collins and Rosa Guzman, having passed their first round of tests in ancient Mexico, are again summoned by the Plumed Serpent who flies them back in time to the first morning of the world. There, the sixth graders witness the origins of human sacrifice as gods throw themselves into the sluggish sun that refuses to rise despite receiving divine fuel.

Finally, Quetzalcoatl, the Serpent, blows a hurricane-force wind that lifts the sun and whisks the children to Tollan Two in tenth century Mexico. They meet the young king, Topiltzin, who has banned human sacrifice in Tollan. But his neighbors, the Chiminec, worship Smoking Mirror who demands mass human sacrifice as the price for military victories. The Chiminec declare war on Tollan.

Topiltzin proposes an alternative to war. He challenges his neighbor to the sacred ball game which re-enacts the drama of the rising of the Fifth Sun. The winner is to be given complete power over the loser. All members of the losing team will be put to death. Tollans team includes Topiltzin, three of his finest warriors, and Peter, who volunteers despite Rosas protests.

The outcome of the game produces profound changes in Mexico as well as in the lives of Peter and Rosa.
