Welcome to Classic Stitch

A cross stitch pattern for The Round Tower Windsor Castle.

Included is a full chart in colour together with a key and full instructions on how to complete each stitch. The charts can be made bigger on your Kindle to help to see the symbols more clearly. This pattern does include fractional stitches, with full instructions on how to work the stitches a beginner and a more experienced stitcher will be able to complete the finished picture. All that is needed is time and patience. A short history of Windsor Castle has also included. Depending on if once finished, you decide to have some of the canvass showing once framed. Then you can add your signature on the canvass, so that it will show up more. However, if you decide to add the signature as shown, you could do it using two strands of cotton, instead of the 1 strand as shown.

It is our aim at Classic Stitch, to make it so that by having all of our patterns in digital format. Depending on whatever device you use choose to view them on, be it a mobile phone, tablet or laptop, all of your patterns can be with you at all times. So that whenever the urge to do some stitching comes over you, there will be a pattern to hand.

I have been doing cross stitch pictures since 1992, around 1994 I was encouraged to have a go at doing my own designs by my parents. My company Classic Stitch was founded in 1995, since when I have been creating my own unique range of cross stitch designs. I have been self-taught at designing and try to make each one of my designs as a work of art in their own right. I have since gone on to become a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts (FRSA). At the time of writing so far as I know, I am the only fellow to create art using stitches.

If you enjoy stitching this picture, please visit the Classic Stitch web site to view the full range of patterns. There you will find a link to take you to Amazon, where you can buy any of my ever-increasing range of books. On the web site you will be able to download a copy of a free pattern.
