Demon was always a savage, never one to mess with, but one fatal night released a monster inside of him he never knew existed. Taking on his new found immortality as a hybrid, Demon became untouchable in every aspect but his heart. Vowing to never love again after losing a piece of himself, he fought his feelings every step of the way when he met Daniya. Between his thirst for her blood and the love for his ex he refused to let go, it makes it hard for him not to give in to his beastly ways.

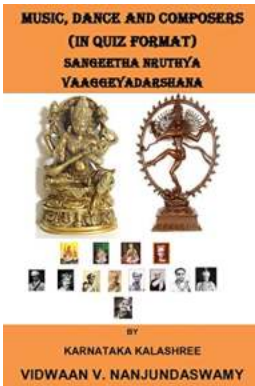

On the outside looking in, Ava seemed to be a life saver to a troubled Demon, scared to embrace his new identity. Searching for answers and coming up empty, it appeared that Ava was all he had in life. Unbeknownst to him, she was the key to the fatal incident from his past and everything he knew about her was a lie.

Daniya knew the world as everyone was taught to believe about its normality, never knowing something dark lingered in the shadows. Her naïveté allowed her to fall for Demon clueless to the secrets of his existence. With a war on the horizon and secrets revealing, will Daniya be able to accept Demon for the savage he is or will knowledge of his true self, seal her fate??
