The Tea Shop by the Sea is a new book for 2021. It's the second book in the Quilting Bee & Tea Shop series of books. This is a 41,000 word, light-hearted romance and can be read as a standalone book, or as part of the series.

Story:

Eila moves from Glasgow and opens a dress shop by the sea in a beautiful village in Scotland. She becomes friends with the ladies of the local quilting bee, and Gordon — he owns the tea shop where the quilting bee nights are held.

Gordon is attracted to Eila, but before he can ask her out on a date, the local community is thrown into chaos by the arrival of four wealthy, successful and handsome men from Edinburgh.

Set on the beautiful Scottish coast, there's sewing, baking, handsome men, romantic rivalry and light-hearted mischief and mayhem.
