I've forged my life with violence, my bike, my brothers, the open road.

But now I'm hungry for more. And I want it with Grace.

Two broken souls share a passionate night together, but an outlaw motorcycle club fighting for its survival forces them to pay the highest price.

She's a bite of bright heaven on my dark road.

But she takes off after our one unforgettable night. I have to find her.

Then she suddenly strides into our clubhouse.

Mind blown, world blown. Past and present explode for every single one of us at the sight of her—she's no stranger.

Grace is a former old lady of the club—my mentor's runaway widow. She's returned to our small town in the Black Hills of South Dakota after mysteriously vanishing without a trace years ago.

She'd always been my ultimate dream woman.

Now my forbidden fantasy is a reality, and I want her back in my bed. In my life.

But that's the last thing she wants.

She's changed.

A violent past and a life on the run, and now a new family tragedy have left Grace bitter.

I know blood and bitter tragedy, and all these years I've been on the run, too...from myself.

I see it in her eyes, I feel it in her touch, in a scorching kiss I steal from her lips. Connection. Need. Desire.

I want to give Grace everything I always thought I didn't have to give.

But Grace's return has ignited ages old brutal rivalries for the MC, sparking a firestorm of chaos like lit dynamite.

Suspicious simmer, loyalties strain, hearts ache.

The truth stings.

For the One-Eyed Jacks, for me and Grace, it's now or never or it's too damn late.
