2. Jerónimos Monastery

The Jerónimos Monastery is another architectural marvel in Lisbon. This stunning religious monument is known for its intricate details and beautiful cloisters. It was built to commemorate the discovery of the sea route to India and has become a symbol of Portugal's maritime greatness. Take a guided tour to learn about the history and significance of this UNESCO-listed monastery.

3. Alfama District

Alfama is the oldest district in Lisbon and is famous for its narrow streets, colorful buildings, and intimate atmosphere. Here, you can get lost in the maze-like alleys, stumble upon hidden viewpoints, and experience the soul of Lisbon. Don't forget to visit the São Jorge Castle, located on one of Alfama's hills, for breathtaking views of the city.

4. Rossio Square

Rossio Square, officially known as Praça Dom Pedro IV, is the heart of Lisbon. This bustling square is surrounded by beautiful historic buildings, cafes, and shops. It is the perfect spot to take a break, enjoy a cup of coffee, and soak in the vibrant atmosphere of the city. Don't miss the Rossio Train Station, a magnificent example of Portuguese Neo-Manueline architecture.

5. Bairro Alto

Known for its lively nightlife, Bairro Alto is a vibrant neighborhood in Lisbon that comes alive in the evening. Its narrow streets are filled with bars, clubs, and restaurants, offering a buzzing atmosphere for night owls. During the day, Bairro Alto is also worth exploring for its unique shops and traditional Portuguese architecture.

6. Lisbon Oceanarium

If you're a fan of marine life, don't miss the Lisbon Oceanarium. It is one of the largest and most impressive aquariums in Europe, housing a wide variety of marine species. The oceanarium is divided into different ecosystems, allowing visitors to explore the wonders of the deep sea, from tropical fish to penguins and sharks.

7. Praça do Comércio

Located near the Tagus River, Praça do Comércio, also known as Commerce Square, is one of the most important squares in Lisbon. This historic place was once the main entrance to the city and is now a meeting point for locals and visitors alike. Take a walk along the riverside promenade, enjoy the stunning views, and explore the nearby shops and restaurants.

8. LX Factory

LX Factory is a trendy creative hub located in the Alcântara district of Lisbon. This former industrial complex has been transformed into a vibrant space filled with trendy shops, art galleries, cafes, and bars. It is the perfect place to discover local craftsmanship, enjoy a delicious meal, or browse through independent bookstores.

9. Sintra

Although not technically in Lisbon, Sintra is a must-visit destination located just a short train ride away. This fairytale-like town is home to several extravagant palaces, including the famous Pena Palace. Explore the colorful gardens, intricate architecture, and stunning views of the surrounding countryside. It's no wonder Sintra is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

10. Cascais

In search of sun, sand, and relaxation? Look no further than Cascais. This charming coastal town is a popular destination for beach lovers and water sports enthusiasts. Enjoy the sandy shores, visit the picturesque marina, and indulge in fresh seafood at one of the waterfront restaurants. Cascais is also a gateway to the stunning natural beauty of the nearby Sintra-Cascais Natural Park.
