2. Great Diamond Island

Great Diamond Island, once home to a thriving military community, now welcomes tourists with open arms. One of the island's biggest attractions is the stunning Diamond Cove, boasting beautiful sandy beaches and clear blue waters. Don't miss the chance to explore Fort McKinley, an old army installation with breathtaking panoramic views of Casco Bay.

3. Long Island

Long Island, as its name suggests, offers a long stretch of scenic coastline waiting to be discovered. With numerous hiking trails, you can immerse yourself in the island's natural wonders. Catch glimpses of wildlife, marvel at the vibrant colors of wildflowers, and breathe in the refreshing coastal air. Don't forget to explore Whitehead Passage, a narrow waterway that separates Long Island from Chebeague Island, providing a picturesque backdrop for your adventures.
