"In bygone days, a railroad track could be a lonesome, unsettling place in the middle of the night. And when a train came along, the eerie white probe of the headlamp and the occasional moan of the steam whistle only seemed to reinforce the notion that something unseen and menacing lurked nearby..."

"Gillespie's railroading stories are colorfully written, well-edited and will take one through the gamut of emotions. You will read this collection from the early days of steam railroading more than once!" ~Reader comment

Read all THREE of Gillespie's collected stories: "Old Time Railroad Stories," "The Phantom Brakeman," and "Dead Under His Cab." Available as perfect bound paperbacks, or Kindle editions. Approximately 175 pages each. Extensive Glossary of railroading terms, and many historic photos!
