Ha Giang is not only known for the majesty of the mountains, or the winding roads, but it is also known as a great destination because of the beauty of the people and the flowers here. Like Sapa, Ha Giang's most famous attraction is the majestic mountains. Although the mountains here are not as high as those of Sapa and do not seem steep enough to challenge adventurous climbers, it is outstanding for its limestone area with polar rock formations. It has a unique period, with its black-gray and white colors, it is likened to the "Stone Flower" species in the Dong Van Plateau. In addition, when coming to Ha Giang, visitors will be immersed in the colors of Canola flower, purple of Manh Triangle flower, and white color of Plum flower. It is these very unique things that Ha Giang has captivated many tourists.

The best time to visit Ha Giang is from October this year until the end of February next year. At this time in Ha Giang, visitors will admire the buckwheat flower season and many festivals of the locals here. Ha Giang not only attracts domestic tourists but also foreign tourists every time they come here, they hope to have a chance to come back. It is a place with majestic mountain scenery, seasonal flowers and the hospitality of the people here. Every year, Ha Giang welcomes millions of domestic and international tourists to visit.
