Here is David Horner's first children's poetry eBook with the title inspired by Elvis Presley. It will be fun listening to people trying to say the title when they buy a copy! Can you find anyone who owns an Elvis song to see if you can hear how The King says it?

The book opens with a tribute to those loud comedy ties that teachers seem to love and ends with a poem for dinner ladies everywhere. In between there is a riddle with no answer, some rewritten nursery rhymes, a poem about palindromes and loads more that Anne and David hope you will enjoy.

Interesting Book Fact: The poem, "Double Trouble" is based on David's wife, Judith's experience - she was taught by her Mum; her Mum was her teacher - for 2 years. Aarrgghh!
