You think you know how the game is played. You have no idea...

In my world the Gansta's on the street are feared. I had no way of knowing that once I accepted a Botany Scholarship at Georgetown University I was going to be unwittingly thrown into the savage biosphere of politics. I've come to learn that here in D.C., the politicians are the real gansta's, and that they are far deadlier than anything we common folk could ever imagine.

I knew she was too innocent to be pulled into my world. A world that was more treacherous than a pit of vipers. However, I could no sooner quiet my hunger for her, than I could the roar of an oncoming tornado.

She gave me my taste, and I found my new addiction. But then she fled from me and became my new obsession.

Now, nothing will stop me from, Coming for What's Mine... Warning
