The screenshot shows a study guide for 'The Iliad' on a dark brown background. On the left is an illustration of a torch with a flame, set against a golden helmet. The text 'Epic Poem' is in the top left, and 'War Literature' with a helmet icon is in the top right. The title 'The Iliad' is prominently displayed in the center. Below the title, three columns of information are provided: 'Author: Homer', 'Year Written: c. 750-650', and 'Original Language: Ancient Greek'. A 'THEMES' section is located below, featuring the theme 'Rage against the World' in large, bold letters. To the right of this theme is a descriptive paragraph: 'As the Trojan War grinds through its 10th year, powerful Achilles grows furious when his pride is insulted. He won't fight for the Achaeans (Greeks) until he gets an apology, even if it means letting Troy win. Tragedy abounds, and Achilles will soon face his own fate—but not before reconnecting with his humanity.'
