In the shattered world nearly overrun by massive spider-like aliens called thoraxin, humanity's only defense are the technomancers, a select group of warriors trained to use the monster's own biological weapon called minz against them. Of those aspirants who train to take up the technomancer battle gauntlet, Avery is the least proficient in its use. Only the strangest twist of fate could place him as the last hope of mankind against the aliens. But that is the way of Fate in the outer edges of Dark Space.
