Seeking to understand tragic but beautiful Bosnia and Hercegovina, Gale A. Kirking drove from his home in the Czech Republic to take a good look around. The book details his travels and conversations with shopkeepers, pensioners, taxi drivers, common soldiers, farmers, policemen and refugees. The narrative provides insights to ordinary people living in a moral twilight that is neither the darkness of war nor the full light of peace, where truth, goodness and fairness are not easily distinguished from falsehood, evil and injustice.

"Highly recommended reading for anyone seeking a proper understanding of the conflict and what to expect next." -- Midwest Book Review, March 2000

"...provides insights into ordinary people living in a moral twilight that is neither the darkness of war nor the full light of peace, where truth, goodness and fairness are not easily distinguished from falsehood, evil and injustice."
