Auld's childhood was defined by her love for the written word; fairy tales and mythological lore became her companions, fueling her imagination and igniting the artistic fire within. To her, these stories were not mere tales but gateways to secret realms waiting to be explored. With every stroke of her pen, Auld brought mythical creatures to life, bridging the gap between reality and fantasy.

Unable to suppress her fervor for the unknown any longer, Auld embarked on a journey to study ancient civilizations, folklore, and the natural world. These deep dives into research allowed her to unearth forgotten myths, legends, and cryptic tales that would serve as the inspiration for her future creations.

Enter the World of Curious Creatures: A Universe Unfolding Around You

Stepping into the realm of Curious Creatures is like stepping into a storybook that has long captured the imagination of children and adults alike. Auld's meticulously handcrafted creations can be found scattered throughout her mystical abode, inviting visitors into her universe of unbridled enchantment.

One cannot help but be captivated by the whimsical creatures that adorn every nook and cranny of Auld's studio. From the mischievous sprite that peeks out from behind the bookshelf to the phoenix perched majestically atop a grand piano, each creation is painstakingly brought to life with astute attention to detail.

The centerpiece of Auld's collection is a mesmerizing dragon sculpture that seems to transcend time and space. Its scaled wings, iridescent hues, and piercing eyes speak volumes about the artist's dedication to capturing the spirit and essence of these mythical beings. As you gaze into the dragon's eyes, you can almost hear its fiery breath and feel the rustle of its wings against the wind.

The Magic Unleashed: Witnessing Evangeline Auld's Process

Behind every immortalized Curious Creature lies a mesmerizing creative process that sets Evangeline Auld apart from the rest. Drawing inspiration from her vast collection of myths, legends, and folktales, Auld embarks on an intricate artistic journey that begins with pencil and paper.

Auld's meticulous attention to detail shines through as she meticulously sketches each creature, paying close attention to anatomical accuracy and capturing the essence of their character. Her process involves countless revisions and adjustments, each stroke of the pencil infused with her boundless imagination and love for the fantastical.

Once satisfied with the initial concept, Auld brings her sketches to life using a combination of traditional sculpting techniques and cutting-edge digital tools. Mold-making, sculpting, texturing, and painting become a dance of precision and creativity as Auld breathes life into her imaginative creations.

The final step of Auld's process involves embedding her creations into bespoke display cases, carefully designed to complement and enhance the creature's unique characteristics. Auld's mastery of light and perspective allows her unspeakably curious beings to transcend their physical form and become gateways into parallel worlds.

Embrace the Curiosity: Evangeline Auld's Message

Evangeline Auld's oeuvre extends far beyond the realms of art and fantasy. Through her creations and captivating stories, Auld inspires us to embrace our own curiosity, to question the boundaries of what is possible, and to revel in the limitless wonders of our own imagination.

She invites us to venture beyond the mundane and embrace the beauty found in the shadows, where the extraordinary takes shape. Auld's work acts as a reminder that the curious creatures we find lurking in our dreams and fantasies are not merely figments of our imagination, but gateways to a world waiting to be discovered.

Twenty-six short, somewhat surreal animal verses, each with an illustration. These idiosyncratic ideas and ridiculous rhymes bear no resemblance to ordinary animals – hence 'Curious Creatures'.

A book for children and also perhaps for adults, these rhyming verses cover each letter of the alphabet. The black-and-white illustrations are unusual and funny and match the verse content very well.
