A gripping, friends-to-lovers-to-enemies, dark romance.

New York City—not for the faint-hearted or the sweetest of souls. The last thing I expected was to be back in this city, after all these years. And I definitely did not expect to be back in this house, where it all started. I have spent years avoiding this place, and the cold hard reality of what happened here.

But I have no choice. We are all quarantined together in this house. It took the end of the world, for me to come back here and face him.

Milo Sinclair.

Once my legal guardian and savior in life. The person who saved me from drowning in loneliness. Who gave me everything I ever wanted. But then he took everything away from me. Plus interest. He broke me. He will not break me again.

*Dark romance is subjective. Some readers have found this book to be a light read while others were sensitive to the discussions about the pandemic, mental health issues, mature new adults, and dubious situations. Milo isn't a normal romance hero, and might not be considered a hero at ALL. So, please don't read if any of that offends you. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to an organization that benefits those affected by the pandemic.
