"Why would you be scared?" Melli asked. She was usually the one who was scared and nervous. Looking at the small gnome, Melli suddenly had a burst of confidence. "When I had to go to Ice Cream Isles by myself, I was really scared," she told Taly. "But you know what? I met some really nice friends and I had a great time." She smiled. "I am going to make sure that you get home safely. But we need a little time to make a plan, okay?"

"Okay," Taly said. "Does the plan involve eating more candy?"

"Sure as sugar!" Melli exclaimed.

Taly leaped up and gave Melli a very tight squeeze.

"Friends help each other," Melli said, "and we're friends now."

"Who is your new friend?" a voice cried from above.

The sight of another Candy Fairy sent Taly running. She hid under one of the nearby caramel bushes.

Melli waved to Cocoa. "Come meet Taly," she said. Melli ducked under the branches. "Come out, Taly. Cocoa is my good friend. You are going to love her . . . and her chocolate! She's a Chocolate Fairy!"

Taly stuck her head out of the branches. "A Chocolate Fairy?" she asked.

"At your service!" Cocoa exclaimed as she landed next to Melli. She saw the pointed hat and the little face sticking out of the bushes. "Wait, is that a gnome?" she asked, turning to Melli.

Melli quickly stood up. "Cocoa, this is Taly,
