Discover the Historic Center of Cordoba

Start your exploration in the heart of the city - the Historic Center. This UNESCO World Heritage site is home to captivating architecture, including the mesmerizing Cordoba Cathedral and the iconic Manzana Jesuitica. Take a stroll through the picturesque streets filled with colonial buildings and charming cafes, immersing yourself in the lively atmosphere of this enchanting district.

As you wander through the cobblestone streets, you'll encounter hidden gems such as El Paseo de las Artes, a vibrant artisan market offering unique handmade crafts. Don't forget to taste local delicacies such as salami, cheese, and traditional pastries at the Mercado Norte, an authentic food market that encapsulates the flavors of Cordoba.

Explore the Natural Wonders of Cordoba

Nature lovers will not be disappointed in Cordoba. Just a short drive from the city center, you'll find picturesque landscapes and awe-inspiring natural wonders. Embark on a hiking adventure at the Quebrada del Condorito National Park, where you can witness the spectacular Andean Condors soaring above the majestic cliffs.

For an unforgettable experience, head to the Sierras de Cordoba mountain range. Here, you can explore hidden waterfalls, go horseback riding through lush valleys, or simply relax and enjoy the tranquility of nature. Don't miss the famous Los Molinos Dam, a scenic reservoir surrounded by rolling hills that create a postcard-perfect sight.

Immerse Yourself in Cordoba's Culture

Cordoba is renowned for its vibrant cultural scene, filled with art galleries, museums, and captivating performances. Explore the Museo Emilio Caraffa, home to an impressive collection of contemporary art, or visit the Museo de Bellas Artes Dr. Genaro Perez, showcasing works by renowned Argentine artists.

For a taste of Cordoba's lively music and dance scene, catch a performance at the Teatro del Libertador San Martin. From tango to folk dances, the theater offers a variety of shows that will leave you mesmerized by the talent and passion of the local artists.

Experience Cordoba's Gastronomic Delights

No trip to Cordoba is complete without indulging in its gastronomic delights. Asados, Argentine barbecues, are a staple of Cordoba's cuisine. Be sure to visit El Papagayo, a traditional steakhouse that serves mouthwatering cuts of meat cooked to perfection. Pair your meal with a glass of Malbec, Argentina's famous red wine, for the ultimate culinary experience.

For a taste of Cordoba's street food culture, head to the Mercado Sur. This bustling market offers a wide array of local street food, from empanadas to choripan, a grilled sausage sandwich. Don't miss the opportunity to savor these flavorsome dishes while soaking in the vibrant atmosphere.

Are you excited about planning your next trip?

Do you want to try something new?

Would you like some guidance from a local?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this Greater Than a Tourist book is for you.

Greater Than a Tourist- Córdoba Argentina by Matias Halac, offers the inside scoop on Córdoba. Most travel books tell you how to travel like a tourist. Although there is nothing wrong with that, as part of the Greater Than a Tourist series, this book will give you travel tips from someone who has lived at your next travel destination.

In these pages, you will discover advice that will help you throughout your stay. This book will not tell you exact addresses or store hours but instead will give you excitement and knowledge from a local that you may not find in other smaller print travel books.

Travel like a local. Slow down, stay in one place, and get to know the people and culture. By the time you finish this book, you will be eager and prepared to travel to your next destination.

Inside this travel guide book you will find:

- Insider tips from a local.

- Bonus tips50 Things to Know About Packing Light for Travel by bestselling author Manidipa Bhattacharyya.
- Packing and planning list.
- List of travel questions to ask yourself or others while traveling.
- A place to write your travel bucket list.

Our Story

Traveling is a passion of the "Greater than a Tourist" series creator. Lisa studied abroad in college, and for their honeymoon Lisa and her husband toured Europe. During her travels to Malta, an older man tried to give her some advice based on his own experience living on the island since he was a young boy. She was not sure if she should talk to the stranger but was interested in his advice. When traveling to some places she was wary to talk to locals because she was afraid that they weren't being genuine. Through her travels, Lisa learned how much locals had to share with tourists. Lisa created the Greater Than a Tourist book series to help connect people with locals. A topic that locals are very passionate about sharing.
