The museums are home to more than 70,000 artistic pieces, divided into numerous galleries and exhibition spaces. From ancient sculptures to Renaissance masterpieces, there is something to captivate everyone's interest. Some of the most famous sections of the museums include the Gallery of Maps, Raphael's Rooms, and the Borgia Apartment.

Explore the Sistine Chapel

No visit to the Vatican Museums is complete without experiencing the magnificence of the Sistine Chapel. This sacred space, with its world-renowned ceiling frescoes by Michelangelo, will leave you spellbound. From the iconic depiction of the Creation of Adam to The Last Judgment, every inch of the chapel represents the pinnacle of Renaissance art.

Please note that silence is strictly enforced within the Sistine Chapel as it serves as a place of worship for the Pope and the Catholic Church. Take your time to admire the incredible craftsmanship and let the beauty of the surroundings transport you to another era.

Highlights of the Collections

The museums boast an extensive range of artworks, covering various periods and styles. Here are some of the highlights you can expect to encounter during your visit:

The Laocoön Group

Marvel at the dramatic marble sculpture of the Laocoön Group, a renowned Hellenistic masterpiece that portrays a scene from Greek mythology. This sculpture, depicting the Trojan priest Laocoön and his sons being attacked by sea serpents, is a testament to the skill and artistry of the ancient world.

The School of Athens

Step into the world of philosophers and intellectuals with Raphael's famous fresco, The School of Athens. Located within the Raphael Rooms, this awe-inspiring work depicts numerous classical figures, including Plato, Aristotle, and Socrates, bringing together the great thinkers of the past.

The Belvedere Torso

Admire the striking Belvedere Torso, a fragmentary marble sculpture depicting the muscular torso of a male figure. This ancient Roman artwork has been revered by artists throughout history as a symbol of exceptional beauty and strength, with its influence evident in the works of Michelangelo and other Renaissance masters.
