As the series unfolds, the Russo family faces numerous obstacles and confronts powerful creatures, wicked wizards, and even the occasional supernatural entity from other dimensions. Through these challenges, they learn valuable life lessons about responsibility, sacrifice, honesty, and the true meaning of family.

Meet the Bewitching Characters

A captivating storyline is nothing without its remarkable characters, and "Wizards of Waverly Place All Mixed Up" excels in this department. Let's take a closer look at the spellbinding individuals that make this show truly unforgettable:

Alex Russo (Selena Gomez)

Alex, the middle Russo sibling and the main protagonist, is a headstrong, independent, and mischievous wizard. Her quick wit and charm combined with her magical prowess make her an irresistible character. Throughout the show, Alex discovers hidden depths to her abilities and embarks on personal growth, while also trying her best to maintain the balance between her magical and non-magical life.

Justin Russo (David Henrie)

As the oldest Russo sibling, Justin is the responsible one of the trio. Diligent and ambitious, his thirst for knowledge and desire to master his magical abilities often puts him at odds with Alex's carefree nature. Despite their differences, Justin's genuine love for his siblings shines through and adds depth to his character.

Max Russo (Jake T. Austin)

The youngest Russo sibling, Max, often serves as the comic relief with his witty one-liners and natural talent for causing hilarious chaos. While initially portrayed as the underdog due to his lack of magical prowess, Max's character development throughout the series surprises both the viewers and his family, revealing hidden talents and proving that he's anything but ordinary.

Teresa Russo (Maria Canals-Barrera) and Jerry Russo (David DeLuise)

Not to forget the parents! Teresa and Jerry Russo add a warm and grounding presence to the show. As former wizards, they provide guidance to their children while reminding them of the importance of being true to themselves. Their unconditional love and support for their kids form an essential element of the narrative.
