Zender has made a fulminating return this month at IAA with the Abarth 500 Corsa Stradale.

The German tuner went bust in 2008 but now they are back in action with a comprehensive kit for the Fiat 500 Abarth. Presented at Frankfurt Motor Show in concept form, the Corsa Stradale has a very aggressive body kit and rides on 18-inch alloys shod in Pirelli P Zero Black performance tires measuring 215/35 ZR 18. Also part of the package are a lowered adjustable sports suspension and a customized interior cabin with stainless steel pedals, illuminated door sill strips and custom sport seats.

This book includes overview, fun facts, advantages statistics, tips for buying a car and interior accessories and so on.
